

Chassis design / selection

Space is created at the rear of the vehicle to accommodate the mobile battery and battery box.

By creating a support with LEGO SPIKE, the parts were prevented from falling and the mounting performance was improved.